

Turning the Corner

The Greater Cleveland Partnership (GCP) released its plans to stimulate regional investment and increase economic viability in its strategic plan, ClevelandPlus: Turning the Corner. More than 300 business leaders and community partners braved one of the season's worst winter storms to hear the details firsthand at the March 5 Annual Meeting in the Public Auditorium.

The strategic plan is designed to guide GCP's work over the next three years. The highlights include:

- Advocate with one voice
- Accelerate economic inclusion
- Support small business success
- Build a high-impact, sustainable job creation system
- Change the face of Cleveland
- Enhance global competitiveness
- Initiate an employer-driven talent system

During the meeting, the GCP Board of Directors also elected Henry L. Meyer III,

Newly elected GCP Chairman Henry Meyer revealed the new strategic plan to more than 300 members, legislators and guests.
