SPONSORSHIP GUIDE

THE GREATER CLEVELAND PARTNERSHIP

CONNECT YOUR BRAND WITH NORTHEAST OHIO'S LEADING BUSINESS ORGANIZATION

The Greater Cleveland Partnership (GCP), the primary advocate for metro Cleveland's eight-county business community, is dedicated to connecting and focusing Greater Cleveland's private-sector resources to build a stronger region.

With more than 10,000 members of all business sizes—Fortune 500 corporations, middle market companies and small businesses—we're one of the largest metropolitan chambers of commerce in the U.S.

As Northeast Ohio's leading business and economic development organization, we offer unique connections to business owners, C-suite executives, thought leaders and elected officials through a variety of sponsorship opportunities.

Through GCP sponsorship opportunities, you'll gain unmatched exposure to decision makers at the highest levels of the metro Cleveland business community.

Sponsorship opportunities include:

- Various speaking roles, participation on workshop panels and as discussion moderators
- Premium logo recognition before, during and after the event, via print, digital and social media
- A display table or exhibit booth to engage clients and distribute marketing collateral
- Complimentary event registrations for your staff and/or guests
- A complete contact list of all attendees

For more information about our sponsorship portfolio, please call 216.592.2370 or email sponsorship@gcpartnership.com.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The Greater Cleveland Partnership's portfolio of programs, events and marketing opportunities provides your company or organization with the ability to connect your brand with Northeast Ohio's most influential business organizations.

Through our corporate events, programs and communications outreach, you will be able to deliver targeted messaging to audiences ranging from 50 to 1,500 decision and policy makers face-to-face, as well as more than 7,000 economic development influencers and stakeholders that can be reached through our digital and social media channels.

GCP Internship Summit: February 21, 2019

The Internship Summit connects the educational community to valuable information that helps improve the experience and internship-readiness of their students by learning more about employer expectations. In its third year, the summit brings together business community representatives and educators to discuss how to better connect students to internship opportunities.

Sponsorship opportunities range from $5,000-$25,000.

GCP Washington, D.C. Fly-In: May 2019

Influencing and helping to shape public policy is one of GCP's key priorities. The Washington, D.C. Fly-In connects Greater Cleveland corporate executives with members of the Ohio congressional delegation and top staff for conversations about crucial business policies and issues that impact our city, region and state.

Sponsorship opportunities range from $1,500 to $10,000.

GCP Annual Meeting: June 2019

At this flagship event, GCP leadership presents the annual agenda for our organization's priorities in the areas of advocacy, business and economic development, physical development, education and workforce, and economic inclusion. More than 1,200 business executives and community leaders attend.

Sponsorship opportunities range from $2,500 to $15,000.

GCP C-Suite Member Golf Outing: July 22, 2019

Held at an exclusive club, the golf outing is a place for C-suite business leaders from GCP member companies to connect on the course. The day features catered lunch and dinner, on-course challenges, prizes and more.

Sponsorship opportunities range from $2,500 to $25,000.

GCP C-Suite Welcome Reception: July 2019

Join GCP member companies to welcome the newest C-suite executives to the Cleveland area.

Sponsorship opportunities range from $5,000 to $15,000.

GCP Chairman's Forum: October 2019

This annual forum features an exclusive update and Q&A with the GCP Board Chair and GCP senior leadership. Members learn about the status of GCP's priorities, discuss opportunities on the horizon and network with more than 100 business leaders and influencers.

Sponsorship opportunity: $5,500.

GCP Public Officials Reception: November 22, 2019

This flagship event brings together the region's federal, state, and local elected officials with business and community leaders. The invitation-only attendance includes C-suite executives such as the GCP Board of Directors, GCP Government Affairs Council and other Northeast Ohio decision makers. The event is enjoyed by nearly 600 attendees.

Sponsorship opportunity: $10,000.

Sponsored Education Series

This education series allows you to connect your brand with Northeast Ohio's most influential business organizations through a private event or series. GCP works with the sponsor to develop a topic and promote the event through various GCP outlets.

Sponsorship starts $5,000.

GCP Video Opportunity

GCP members and partners discuss timely topics related to public policy issues and legislation that impact the Greater Cleveland business community. The content is shared with more than 7,000 GCP members through our weekly e-newsletter. Additional outreach to the community via our website and social media channels reaches an engaged audience of 15,000+ per month.

Sponsorship opportunities start at $2,000.

GCP Investor Series: Quarterly

These exclusive events connect small and mid-sized business owners to the broader economic development agenda for Northeast Ohio. Events include behind the scenes tours of new projects in the region, guided tours of growing neighborhoods, access to NEO business leader speakers, and briefings on issues relevant and important to businesses.

Sponsorship opportunities start at $2,500.

GCP Morning Conversations: 8 Events Per Year

GCP Morning Conversations is a series of exclusive members-only programs, providing candid, off the record dialogue with political leaders, media executives and other key influencers on public policy issues that impact our city, region and state.

Sponsorship opportunity: $20,000.

GCP Meeting Room Sponsorships

Located in the heart of Playhouse Square, the GCP's offices welcome more than 40,000 visitors a year. Our dynamic conference center offers GCP members and guests access to high-tech, state of the art facilities that accommodate meetings for groups with anywhere up to 150 attendees.

Branding opportunities range from $25,000 to $75,000 with a five-year minimum commitment.

GCP Digital Opportunities

GCP allows you to connect your brand with Northeast Ohio's most influential business organizations through:

GCP Every Monday E-Newsletter

Our weekly digital publication provides news about, and related to, GCP priorities to an audience of over 7,000 senior-level staff and C-suite executives at GCP member companies. Readers are informed about business and economic development topics and public policy issues that impact the Northeast Ohio business climate.

GCP Website and Social Media

As a leading content provider of Greater Cleveland news and information about business issues and resources, our website attracts more than 8,000 visitors monthly, which translates into close to 30,000 page views. Our social media channels reach an even broader audience that's tuned into economic development news and trends.

Dedicated Member Email

Our email list consists of 7,000 senior-level staff and C-suite executives at GCP-member companies.

The Commission on Economic Inclusion is the GCP's program that assists members with translating diversity and inclusion into better business outcomes. Primary efforts are aimed at including more minorities in the senior management and board leadership of companies and organizations, increasing access to jobs that pay well, and growing minority-owned businesses (MBEs) in the region.

Inclusion Conference: August 2019

Northeast Ohio's premier program for senior-level diversity and HR professionals, the Commission's annual conference features presentations from local, national and international companies and speakers recognized for strategic outcomes driven by diversity and inclusion. It also includes interactive sessions to help the 250+ attendees connect diversity management with setting and achieving organizational goals.

Sponsorship opportunities range from $3,500 to $15,000.

Leadership Forum: November 2019

This forum is tailored specifically for CEOs and select members of their senior leadership team. Programming is focused on implementation of diversity and inclusion best practices and initiatives from the perspectives of the C-suite.

Sponsorship opportunities range from $5,000 to $15,000.

Commission Connection E-Newsletter

The Commission's bi-monthly e-newsletter includes local, regional and national updates about diversity management and workplace inclusion trends and best practices. Relevant workshops and events are included, as well. The publication reaches more than 7,000 GCP and Commission Economic Inclusion members with a focus on C-suite and HR executives. Please see the digital advertising brochure for more details.

Commission Dedicated Member Email

Target businesses with a wholly owned campaign that gives you flexibility of messaging, timing and your own call-to-action.

Middle market companies—those with annual revenues between $10M and $1B—comprise the “market that moves America.” The Greater Cleveland Partnership’s Middle Market Initiative focuses on providing resources and connections that our region’s more than 3,000 middle market companies need to drive growth, increase competitiveness and create jobs. We’re also working to ensure that Northeast Ohio’s middle market businesses leaders are connected and contribute to our regional economic development agenda.

Middle Market Connections Sponsorship: $45,000 per Year at a Minimum of Three Years

Sponsorship opportunities deliver a C-suite audience and other decision makers through several high-visibility channels. This includes category exclusivity for the Greater Cleveland Middle Market Forum, Quarterly Forums, Middle Market Update e-newsletter and the Middle Market Knowledge Center.

Greater Cleveland Middle Market Forum: April 2019

Our annual signature event for middle market companies features thought leaders from the business community discussing topics that impact middle market company success. It also provides unparalleled networking opportunities for the region's middle market executives and decision makers.

Included in Middle Market Connections Sponsorship.

Quarterly Forums: February, August, and November 2019

In addition to our annual forum, we offer quarterly programs that provide a deeper dive into topics and challenges that impact middle market companies. Subjects include innovation, exporting, talent retention and attraction, supply chain resiliency, cyber security, and economic trends.

Included in Middle Market Connections Sponsorship.

CEO Insights (2)

These CEO-only sessions feature a Northeast Ohio company CEO sharing insights, experiences and ideas on how they have achieved success in business. These exclusive forums give attendees a chance to ask questions and dialogue with the presenting business leader in an intimate group format.

GCP Middle Market Update E-Newsletter

Distributed exclusively to the middle market audience, the Update explores timely topics, provides best practices and highlights research and events of interest to middle market leaders. Sponsors have an opportunity to contribute content on a monthly basis.

Included in Middle Market Connections Sponsorship.

GCP Middle Market Knowledge Center

Our online resource center offers—through one easy access point—information about products, services and business resources that support this dynamic segment of the economy, including those offered by our Middle Market sponsor companies.
